Re: United States v. Darren Cannao, Crim. No. 09-263 (SRC)

Dear Judge Chesler:

Your Honor sentenced Darren Cannao on June 25, 2009, to a one-year term of probation and a three-month period of home incarceration with electronic monitoring. Mr. Cannao requests that the period of home incarceration with electronic monitoring, as a condition of his probation, be modified to allow him to pick up and drop off his two children at their school because he shares joint custody of the two children with his ex-wife. As part of his custody agreement, Mr. Cannao is scheduled to pick up and drop off his children about 2 or 3 times per week.

I have contacted the government, per Dustin Chao, Assistant United States Attorney, and the U.S. Probation Office, and neither has any objection to Mr. Cannao's request. I therefore enclose a proposed form of Order. Should Your Honor have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. Your Honor's consideration of this request is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

/s/Candace Hom
Assistant Federal Public Defender

Re: United States v. Darren Cannao
Crim. No. 09-263 (SRC)

Dear Judge Chesler:

The government has no objection to Your Honor's Order to modify the conditions of Darren Cannao's home confinement to allow Mr. Cannao to pick up and drop off his children at school, as pre-approved by U.S. Probation.

Respectfully,

RALPH J. MARRA, JR.
